1. Overview

1.1 Purpose of Policy

The purpose of this Code of Conduct for Squash Ireland is to incorporate the respect for, and the elimination of, abuse towards all those involved in Squash including players, coaches, referees, and spectators, and to help promote good practice within the sport.

This Code of Conduct outlines good practice procedures required of those participating in squash, regardless of what role they may play in doing so. It also aims to create an atmosphere of fairness, integrity, and respect among players, coaches, referees and markers, tournament directors, spectators, and supporters in squash. It covers the behaviour of all involved before, during, and after squash is played, no matter the sporting environment. All involved should recognise the pivotal role that each and many others, play in the development of squash, and should always support one another when fulfilling their roles.

This Code of Conduct addresses the minimum levels of behaviour, conduct and good practice and procedures expected from all participants. Outlined within the Code of Conduct, are the following relevant roles:

- Players
- Coaches
- Supporters and Spectators
- Parents/Guardians
- Officials (Tournament Directors, Referees and Markers)
- Clubs & Club Members
- The Board, Committee members and working group members.

It also emphasises the role of parents/guardians and supporters in supporting the positive development of young participants and avoiding actions that can have a lasting emotional effect on them.

Squash Ireland is also subject to the World Squash Federation (WSF) Code of Conduct and any breach of that code may also be referred to WSF for their review and potential action by WSF. Similarly any person who becomes subject to a process for breach of the WSF Code of Conduct may also be subject to a process under this Squash Ireland policy.

2. Code of Conduct – Positive Conduct

All participants (Players, Coaches, Selectors, Assistants, Supporters, Parents/ Guardians, Officials, Clubs, and other personnel) must:
